

2014-15 LCS Leadership Configuration

10-12 High School Structure

Chief Operations Officer (Co-Principal) Building leader responsible for social processes and student programming including extra-curricular activities, K-12 District Athletic Director, school counseling services, Seminar, community connections and parent relations. Also responsible for teacher evaluation. Work in connection with the 4-Principal leadership team to establish a highly connected and cohesive 6-12 program.	Chief Academic Officer (Co-Principal) Building leader responsible for direction of the high school academic program including coordination of unit summatives, department chair leadership, instructional technology, instructional coach leadership, teacher evaluation and West Campus oversight. Work in connection with the 4-Principal leadership team to establish a highly connected and cohesive 6-12 program.
Assistant Principal/Associate Athletic Director Building leader serving as the 10-12 assistant principal supporting in the areas of student discipline and teacher evaluation, along with other duties inside our high school athletic program such as scheduling and game management.
Assistant Principal Building leader serving as the 10-12 assistant principal directing the daily operations team including other duties relative to student discipline, building leadership and teacher evaluation.
Director of Innovation – West Campus West Campus director of operations and programming leading our alternative education concept, virtual learning, home school concept, dual enrollment and other possible magnets. In conjunction with the LHS leadership team, this person works to provide a variety of options for our students but is also responsible for student management, on-site leadership and teacher evaluation.
Dean of Students (1) Responsible for daily operations relative to student management including, but not limited to student discipline, lunchroom and hallway supervision, and provide support to assistant principals as needed.

6 thru 9 Structure

Chief Operations Officer (Co-Principal) Building leader responsible for social processes and student programming including extra-curricular activities, 7-8 Athletic Director, school counseling services, I-connect, community connections, PBIS and parent relations. Also responsible for teacher evaluation. Work in connection with the 4-Principal leadership team to establish a highly connected and cohesive 6-12 program.	Chief Academic Officer (Co-Principal) Building leader responsible for direction of the academic program including coordination of unit summatives, department chair leadership, instructional technology, instructional coach leadership, and teacher evaluation. Work in connection with the 4-Principal leadership team to establish a highly connected and cohesive 6-12 program.
Zemmer Associate Principal/Campus Director RW Associate Principal/Campus Director These two building leaders are responsible for managing the daily operations team at the two facilities relative to on-site management, student discipline, teacher evaluation, management of deans, social programming, and parent/staff relations.
Dean of Students (2) Responsible for daily operations relative to student management including, but not limited to student discipline, lunchroom and hallway supervision, and provide support to assistant principals as needed.
