A. HDHP coverage is health coverage that meets the following requirements:

- Self-Only Coverage: Self-only coverage is coverage of one individual. To qualify as HDHP coverage, it must have a deductible of at least $1,350 (as indexed for inflation) before any reimbursement is made for eligible medical expenses (other than preventive care)
- Family Coverage: Family coverage is any coverage other than self-only coverage. Family HDHP must have a deductible of at least $2,700 (as indexed for inflation) before any reimbursement is made for eligible medical expenses (other than preventive care). No amounts can be paid (other than for preventive care) until the minimum required family deductible has been satisfied (i.e., there cannot be an individual deductible within the family deductible that is less than the required minimum of $2,700, as indexed for inflation).

B. Permitted non-HDHP insurance or coverage is:

- insurance in which substantially all of the coverage relates to liabilities incurred under workers' compensation laws, tort liabilities, liabilities relating to ownership or use of property (e.g., home-owner or auto insurance), or similar liabilities as specified by the IRS;
- insurance for a specified disease or illness (e.g., cancer insurance);
- insurance that pays a fixed amount per day (or other period) of hospitalization (e.g., hospital indemnity insurance); or
- coverage for accidents, disability, dental care, vision care, or long-term care, including some medical reimbursement accounts and health reimbursement arrangements (HRAs) (e.g., limited purpose medical reimbursement accounts and HRAs, suspended HRAs, post-deductible medical reimbursement accounts and HRAs, and retirement HRAs) and some wellness programs and employee assistance programs (e.g., those that do not provide significant benefits in the nature of non-preventive medical care or treatment).

C. Special Rule for Married Individuals:

- If your spouse has family coverage under another plan and you are covered by it, that coverage must qualify as HDHP coverage in order for you to be eligible for HSA contributions. For example, if your spouse has family coverage under an HMO or a low-deductible medical plan, then you would be ineligible for HSA contributions. You would also be ineligible for HSA contributions if your spouse participates in a medical reimbursement plan or health reimbursement arrangement that reimburses expenses incurred by a participant's spouse. In addition, the amount of your HSA contributions may be limited if your spouse has HDHP family coverage.

Please note:
Maximum contribution for H.S.A. for 2018 is $3,450 Single or $6,900 Family
Catch-up Contribution (age 55+) is $1,000
